Elden Ring System

The “Elden Ring System” and 8 Base Classes.

Attack Mode

Both the Attackers and Defenders form teams of 4. You will have 4 clicks each on your Key/O buttons before you can attack. This is the attack button.

A button “1 rank” higher is used to enhance your attack power. (for example, the belt rank to increase the level of the belt)

The number of attacks that will be enhanced will change according to the level of the items you are wearing. The higher the item level, the higher the number of times it is possible to enhance your attack.

When playing with another person, your game character “phantom”, which will automatically be enhanced the attack.

When playing single match, the number of times your “phantom” can be enhanced the attack is determined as 1 click.

Defense Mode

When you are in defense mode, an attacker will have 5 clicks to attack you.

If there is more than one person on the map, the attacker will attack the person with the highest defense level. The higher the defense level of the defender, the higher defense level the attacker must have to attack the defender.

Auto Attack

If you focus on your defense and attack intervals will reduce automatically.

When you are in defense mode, the attacker will attack you in intervals.

If you are in defense mode, your defense will reduce automatically. When you are in defense mode the attacker will

Agency finds lorries used by Rennie-style builders were worth £220,000 but one of the largest fines to date remains unpaid This article is more than 4 years old This article is more than 4 years old Britain's biggest ever welfare benefit fraud fine has been imposed on a builder who had been paid £17m and 4,500 workers – despite a court ruling it was “clearly not the best use” of taxpayers' money. The enforcement agency the Department of Work and Pensions imposed the fine of £220,000 on BD Construction Services on Friday in the wake of a Westminster council ruling that it was a misuse of public funds. It marks one of the biggest fines imposed in a single case, and is likely to prompt action against other welfare-to-work contractors accused of using jobs to avoid benefit sanctions. The company was set up in 2003 with a managing director, Peter Rennie, a former youth football coach who now runs the Daily Mirror. It has built 26,000 homes under the Surestart brand. An investigation by the national fraud hotline found that during
